The downward plunge which the gold market took to-day dumfounded the market, which expected to see gold steady to the near approach of the month's settlement, the "dies irae" of the gold cars. The latter have taken, therefore, unmistakably the gauge of the situation. The ball is at their feet, and when the sign to set it rolling is rolled vigorously testified by the fall of five points in the first hour. The usual deluge of comments and inquiry pervaded the hall. Everybody asked what was up, and nobody could answer, the usual aerial solution of the London advanced with impenetrable serenity.

The Catalinas board of directors put a cap on that stock which took prices up to $100 for cash; it was said in fact that Messrs. Mallman and Torquise, now former members of the board of this concern, though we are unable to vouch for the accuracy of the news, were also in better demand by the Constructors were also in better demand and improved up to 30 for cash. Since the great auction of Bahia Blanca land is to be held in a few days give a good reason these shares may be expected to improve though this can scarcely be expected with any degree of certainty, due to the state of the market and tightness of money.

The following is a summary of operations effected this afternoon during ward to good winter. They sold their cereals and wool at high prices, and every prospect now of a good increase the herds and flocks without the risk of mortality that decimated them last winter.

As a sample of how even valuable properties in the very heart of the country have fallen in value, we note the sale of Estrada property, corner of Arenas, Mayo and Chacabuco, at 410 dollars per square yard, by Mrs. Dorrego. This was a year ago 800 dollars per square yard. The property was asked for this same property, and some seven months ago, for 1,000 dollars. It was bought by Mr. Herrera at 750 dollars. Mr. Herrera is a Spaniard.

Mr. John Lean; well-known estate of Ayacucho, was welcomed to-day
leaves to-morrow for his estancia.
The export of articles of prime constitution from Montevideo to this city goes briskly, and five steamers come up every night of wine, sugar, tea, etc., the accounts for the great spirit in the Ad-
receipts.
The Senate will take up the Gold D.
Bill in to-morrow's sitting, and in all probability pass it immediately, as Finance Committee have dispatched favourably.
According to La Plata advices, Gov.
Costa intends to visit the Plata States

next, and to discounts will be made about the middle of June. With reference to the new boards, it seems that there will be some changes in their composition.

Mr. Toso, president of the Provincial Mortgage Bank, says in a letter to his colleague, El Diario, that he is not aware of the fresh funds said to have been denied in the bank. Our colleague, in a letter to the writer, says that the accusations made against the bank are to be made in the future. Such is the state of affairs at present, and the development is looked forward to with much interest in the market, where the reactions already made have created a very unfavorable impression.
